Brief Description:

The Judiciary Reform is an important process to enhance the system transparency and efficacy and to enlarge the access to justice of vulnerable population, that are usually excluded from this mechanism. At this sense, the main objective of this project is to support the modernization of the Brazilian Justice, through the production of subsidies to the Judiciary Reform process. This objective will be implemented through four main axis:

1. To produce subsidies to the Judiciary Reform process
2. To implement experiences focused on enlarging the access to justice and enhancing the administration of the Brazilian Justice
3. To elaborate a proposal of a national policy on alternative dispute resolution, in partnership with key partners
4. To strengthen the Secretariat of Judiciary Reform.
