Brief Description

The cultural heritage of Cyprus emanates from diverse and rich cultures and civilizations which have populated the island throughout history. It constitutes the common heritage of Greek and Turkish Cypriots and of humanity regardless of its origin. UNDP has been assisting the Technical Committee on Cultural Heritage (TCCH) since 2012 to preserve the island's cultural heritage.

Through this project TCCH will raise the awareness and fill the educational gap in the field of cultural heritage that existed especially between the younger generations living in Cyprus. TCCH believes that while raising the awareness and respect for the protection of the cultural heritage of the island, we can also contribute to the establishment of the most needed confidence between all those living in Cyprus, therefore, contribute to the protection of the cultural heritage of the island as well as to efforts for reconciliation.

The strategic objective of the project is to support the confidence building process and to increase the levels of trust between the Greek Cypriots and Turkish Cypriots.

The project's output is that students are knowledgeable and engaged in the protection and promotion of Cyprus' diverse and shared cultural heritage.
