Dear Jessica and team,

Many thanks for all of your work on these reports. While I have already worked closely with you and the team on these reports prior to the submission, given the current climate and situation, I have reviewed one final time to ensure none of your great work can be taken out of context by external observers. As such, I have made a few final adjustments in track changes. If accepted, OSE will consider these reports ready for publication.

Best,

Ramsey
