Part A. Integrating Programming Principles to Strengthen Social and Environmental Sustainability

QUESTION 1: How Does the Project Integrate the Programming Principles in Order to Strengthen Social and Environmental Sustainability?
Briefly describe in the space below how the project mainstreams the human rights-based approach
The project aims to support the Government of Uttarakhand in fast tracking and localizing the SDGs across the state. The State requires technical support in awareness building, innovations, localisation & integration and finally concurrent monitoring. Through this project, UNDP is offering technical support to Department of Planning through experts and curated activities to fast-track the agenda. One of the main components of the project includes developing policies on the different SDGs for the state such as good health and wellbeing, poverty reduction and gender/women empowerment. The human rights based lens is being applied to develop all these policies by ensuring these policies include the most marginalized and vulnerable sections of society, emphasizing UNDP's LNOB approach.
Briefly describe in the space below how the project is likely to improve gender equality and women's empowerment
As mentioned above, the project aims to develop a policy for the state government on women empowerment and gender equality, gender mainstreaming and gender budgeting. The project will also increase awareness and sensitize government officials on gender to help mainstream women's empowerment and improve gender equality.
Briefly describe in the space below how the project mainstreams sustainability and resilience
The project aims to develop a policy for green growth. The major growth engines identified by the State for enabling green growth in the State consists of boost to sectors such as hill agriculture and horticulture development through organic farming, aromatic and medicinal plants and herbs; renewable energy generation through small hydel projects; encouraging tourism in the state with focus on eco-tourism, high end leisure tourism, spiritual and religious tourism, wellness tourism; ecosystem services and enabling IT & MSME sectors. The State will aim at accelerating the growth regime and to reduce the income disparities in the districts. Further there will be a plan to enhance the environmental sustainability by addressing the bio-economy, green engineering and green technology for development of the State.
Briefly describe in the space below how the project strengthens accountability to stakeholders

The project will provide high quality technical support and assistance to the state level to enhance their technical program management capacities. In this context, the project will have a robust monitoring and evaluation mechanism and a risk mitigation strategy. It will have regular reviews with all stakeholders and share information, updates and progress. A State Project Steering Committee would be established to review and monitor the implementation and oversight of the project.

Final Sign Off

Final Screening at the design-stage is not complete until the following signatures are included

Signature	Date	Description
QA Assessor 		UNDP staff member responsible for the project, typically a UNDP Programme Officer. Final signature confirms they have "checked" to ensure that the SESP is adequately conducted.
QA Approver 		UNDP senior manager, typically the UNDP Deputy Country Director (DCD), Country Director (CD), Deputy Resident Representative (DRR), or Resident Representative (RR). The QA Approver cannot also be the QA Assessor. Final signature confirms they have "cleared" the SESP prior to submittal to the PAC.
PAC Chair		UNDP chair of the PAC. In some cases PAC Chair may also be the QA Approver. Final signature confirms that the SESP was considered as part of the project appraisal and considered in recommendations of the PAC.
