Brief Description

This is the second phase of the project that is aimed at developing capacities of the Ministry of Defence of the Republic of Moldova for the effective implementation of the Security Sector Reform and of the National Defence Strategy.

Support will be provided to the improvement of the Ministry's internal systems and processes, as well as to strengthening staff capacities in evidence-based planning, budgeting, reporting, internal and external communication, and to enhancing gender equality. The Ministry will be supported in further elaboration of modern automated tools that would ensure effective and efficient collection, update and processing of disaggregated data regarding the defence resources. These tools will enable the Ministry to make evidence-based military and civil protection decisions and to rapidly react to any emerging threats and challenges to national security. The project will provide assistance in the endowment of the Ministry with the new ICT and other equipment, as well as in the improvement of the infrastructure of the National Army.

By contributing to the Ministry of Defence's institutional capacity development, the endowment with the modern tools and equipment and strengthening gender equality approach in the sector, the Project will contribute to the implementation of the Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) targets aiming at ensuring a peaceful development and secure environment for the people of Moldova, along with the targets promoting human rights, gender equality and improving health and wellbeing access. The project will link to Moldova's international commitments, in particular those related to the participation in the UN Peacekeeping operations, partnership with NATO and to the implementation of UN Security Council Resolution 1325 "Women, Peace and Security".
