Narrative

The young democracy in Malawi is facing challenges. The very essence of politics has been reduced to inter and intra party rivalry to the extent that politics is deemed by many as being destructive. This political fallout has the potential of watering down whatever little gains have been registered in the development of democracy in the country. In an emerging democracy like Malawi, political parties, which are major players in many democracies, are faced with number of challenges. Such challenges include weak institutional capacity to manage party affairs, poor intra-party democracy, weak party leadership, and incessant inter-party rivalries. This project aims at developing the capacity of political parties in Malawi to: (a) manage their party activities by strengthening the political party secretariats; (b) strengthening intra-party democracy through training and establishment of procedures; and (c) support intra-party conflict resolution through training and leadership development as reflected in the UNDAF 4.1.2.

The Centre for Multiparty Democracy board will have an oversight of the project whereas the Secretariat will implement the activities. The Executive director will be responsible for monitoring and reporting the execution of this project. UNDP will provide technical and financial support through the Harmonized Approach to Cash Transfer (HACT) modality. Advances will be disbursed directly to the Implementing Partner on a quarterly basis upon receipt of a satisfactory progress report.
