

Knowledge Sharing event Koni de fu prati di a weer e kenki

Photo Impressions

School children from schools in rural areas were invited and were exposed to all information presented by partners of the GCCA+ Suriname Adaptation Project, who are less likely to be exposed to these events and this information then children in urban areas,

Members of government were also exposed to the work being done by partners through the GCCA+ Suriname Adaptation Project.