Revision Type: Extension of the Project duration until 31 July 2012

Brief Description:

The Project aims at strengthening the capacities of local authorities with particular emphasis on city council-related local democratic governance issues, the capacities of city councils via the development and internalization of local democratic governance practices and providing support in relation to the development of information exchange, communication and collaboration among the city councils. To this end, since early 2009, the Project activities with regards to capacity enhancement of the city councils has been realized successfully without any delay.

The reason of the revision at hand is for the extension of the project activities in order to produce background documentation, research on local governance mechanisms for Rio+20 process, which would be used by the Government of Turkey and its further follow-up. The revision is decided jointly by Project partners.
