Justification for Substantive Project Revision

The Support to National Human Rights Priorities comes to an end on 30 June 2015. The project has progressed far towards achieving the identified deliverables. In order to further progress and ensure sustainability of the achievements it is proposed, following discussion between UNDP and CHRAGG, to have a no-cost extension of the project to 31 December 2015 to achieve the following deliverables:

- Dissemination of NHRAP and sensitisation to raise awareness on the NHRAP;
- Capacity development for CHRAGG to ensure data monitoring system reaches full operational potential by CHRAGG and the link officers in order to ensure CHRAGG is capable in supporting the government in collecting data for their regional and international obligations;
- Capacity development for CHRAGG to analyze data and produce accurate, comprehensive national and international reports as per their obligations; and
- Support reporting to the Universal Periodic Review.
