Dear Ebba,

I appreciate your prompt reply, likewise! I heard that you are working literally remotely from TL, but couldn't be faster :)

At this point, it seems that everything has been taken care of, paperwork-wise, for the final reporting.

Thank you indeed, and I hope you stay healthy.

Best regards,

Haejung.

Dear Ebba,

Thank you so much for the documents. Besides the report, the shared materials will help us to deepen our understanding of the relevant project activities.

I just went through a bit of quick review and would like to ask you a few minor revision on the Synthesis Report, mainly regarding figures.

As I left 2 footnotes on the page 16 and 44, please kindly find them.

Thank you again, and I look forward to hearing back from you soon.

Best regards,

Haejung.

Subject : UNDP's Enhancing Public Sector Accountability Through Institutional Strengthening in Anti-Corruption and Decentralization Project

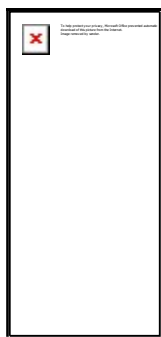

Dear Haejung,

On behalf of the Democratic Governance Unit at UNDP, I hereby share the following documents with you for the 'Enhancing Public Sector Accountability Through Institutional Strengthening in Anti-Corruption and Decentralization' project:

- Revised Synthesis Report with yellow highlights to indicate changes from the previous version that we submitted. These include: correction of logframe numbers (p.13-19), additional information on the COVID activities under Component C (p.23-24), and the annexed provisional financial report (p.43).
- Revised Synthesis Report without yellow highlights (clean version of the above).
- Best Practice Example. This is an extract from one of the project's articles which highlights 3 key points of best practice, namely, 1) using past experience and feedback from participants and youth to inform the actions of the project, 2) using innovative ways to bring political discussions closer to the people (specifically the youth), and 3) instilling ownership of the project in the participants.
- Beneficiary Testimonies

Youngchan will follow up on the above tomorrow (Tuesday) morning, but if you have any questions in the meantime, please get in touch.

Best regards,
